In recognition of the fine service given to the extracurricular activities of Matador Schools we, the builders of this yearbook, dedicate the 1960 La Arena to Mr. Ward Rattan for rendering his time and effort to the Matador Drum and Bugle Corps, and to Mrs. J. R. Whitworth for giving herself unselfishly to our school in every worthwhile project.

High School Teams Enter Tournaments

Matador High School basketball teams competed in the Estelline tournament two weeks ago. The girls team won their first game, but lost their second.
 The boys lost both of the games they played.

The girls beat Quail 45-32 in their first game. Kay Rattan paced the Matador team with 28 points.

Memphis eliminated the girls, though, by stopping them 56-45.
 Kay Rattan singed the nets for 31 points to no avail, as a poor shooting performance in the first half spelled defeat. The team trailed by 16 points at one time, cut the lead to 3 points but could not catch up.

Estelline beat the boys team 82-29 in the first game. The were eliminated by the h B team. Final score 83-34.

 love and get married.

Charles is put into priso cause of his love for Mary and is sentenced to be put to death.
 Mary saves his life by giving her hand in marriage to the very old and almost dead King Louis of France. Mary asks of Henry two things: one is that Charles' life be spared and the other that her second marriage be of her own choice. Mary becomes Queen of France but not a wife to Louis.

When Louis dies she marries Charles and he becomes Duke of Suffolk.

This is a good account of the life of King Henry the Eighth and of the faith a princess and the Captain of the Guards had in each others love.

 The basketball girls have add-cases. It was won in the Jayton tournament for Consolation.

The senior civics class had a strong debate last Thursday.
 The subject was where and how most teenagers should spend their free time.

We have just discovered that we have a movie star in our midst. Our Coach and history teacher, Mr. Johnson, played a part in the movie, "One Minute to Zero," with Robert Mitchem and Ann Blythe, while he was in the army. Of course, he couldn't even find himself in the show, but a star is a star!
